Friday, November 14th

We trust you've had a wonderful week! Romans 8:39 reminds us that "neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord." What a comforting truth—that God's love is steadfast and unchanging, no matter what we face. We're grateful for all that He continues to do in and through our TCS community. Below are a few updates and highlights from around the school. Have a blessed weekend!

Apologetics 1 Students Lead Peer Teaching Presentation

By Dr. Chivalette

Six talented students from Apologetics 1 recently took on the role of teachers, delivering two dynamic presentations to their peers in Bible 11. The presenters — Shea Lynn Rager, Nolyn Wright, Braxton Hoover, Zach Metz, Caynan Schick, and Jake Carge — did an outstanding job explaining the historical evidence of Jesus Christ found in external writings by notable ancient historians such as Tacitus, Flavius Josephus, and Pliny the Younger.

Their well-prepared and engaging presentation tied directly into Bible 11's current study on "The Reliability of the Bible." Through the use of peer teaching, these students helped bridge the gap between biblical truth and historical scholarship, offering their classmates clear biblical, archaeological, and historical verification for the life and ministry of Jesus Christ.

One of the most exciting aspects of their presentation was the discovery that even non-Christian writers — men who did not follow Christ — still acknowledged His existence, miraculous works, and crucifixion under Pontius Pilate. This compelling evidence reinforced that faith in the Scriptures is both spiritually and historically well-founded. The spirit of this project beautifully reflected the motto of Apologetics, drawn from 1 Peter 3:15-16: "Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have."

Through their preparation, teamwork, and passion, these six students exemplified what it means to "give a reason" for what they believe — encouraging their peers to stand confidently in the truth of God's Word.

"Always be prepared to make a defense to any one who calls you to account for the hope that is in you, yet do it with gentleness and reverence..."

- 1 Peter 3:15

Spanish I students wrote short TV commercials for resort hotels in English and then translated them into Spanish. They presented their Spanish ads to the class, practicing vocabulary, persuasive language, and pronunciation—all while imagining dream destinations in Spanish-speaking countries.

The 2nd grade students in Mrs. Rager's class are learning about the election process in their Community and Government unit. On Election Day, the students went to the polls to cast their vote on an important issue: which Oreo Flavor is the best- Double Stuffed or Birthday Cake? When the votes were counted, Birthday Cake Oreos won in a landslide victory, 10 to 3. It was truly a "sweet" way to learn about the election process!

Fourth grade students enjoyed indoor recess this week.
